Shenandoah

VOL. 61.

COUNTY

G. R. Calvert, .

celah Stickley.

H. H Riddleberger, -

COMMONWEALTH'S ATTORBET.

CLERK OF THE COURTS.

SHERIFF.

DEPUTIES.

TREASURER.

corgo W. Koonts. . . . codeto

COMMISSIONERS OF REVENUE.

SURVEYOR.

illiam Tisinger, . . . Mt. Jackson

SUPERINTENDENT OF POOR.

SUPERVISORS.

PARISH PHYSICIAN.

OVERSEERS POOR.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

CONSTABLES.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

SHENANDOAH COUNTY BANK.

NEW MARKET BANK.

COMMISSIONERS IN CHANCERY.

COMMISSIONER OF ACCOUNTS.

OLD DRUG STORE,

WOODSTOCK, VA

ablished about 1825 by Dr. John G. Schmi

DEALERIN

Drugs, Medicines. Glass,

PAINT, OILS

DYE STUFF.

Stationery, etc., etc.

CANDY NUTS, FRUIT&c.

As cheap as the cheapest.

Purity and Reliability

PHE ORIGINAL PURE NORWEGIAN

COD LIVER OIL

This Oil unlike others is not the fish; asting article, but as a pure, biand resh 0il, without any admixture, easily accepted and retained by the most f goods always guarranteed. Prescript

Varnishes,

Fancy Goods,

SARAH HOLTZMAN

Brick!

40.8 M

Playe how with and a large well-burnt bil-

Brick!

George M. Borum, J. W. Magrader,

WOODSTOCK, VA., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1881.

of him, but that was because they didn't Old Granny. understand him. He wanted under-Let me tell you about Old Granny standing, did James, ma'am." "And did you ever find him ?"

berland. bonds of mock politeness.

'Have you no one belonging to you I'd have known. No. ma'am, its just dead many years? for I concluded that, book and be a burden. But I know

'He's not dead at all as I knows on.' she answered, the tears gathering into on her worn, pamed face. her eyes; 'we parted many years ago.

'Wasn't he good to you?" not since I was a lass; I don't believe

'Then why Is it ?' I asked. 'He was a very proud man, and he was above it. But he'd his weakness. to see him once more.' ma'am-it was drink. He conquered his longing often and often, and h'ed with her. She was much worse the elks was controlled by a few bucks, inflict upon one so young and evidently line both up and down the creek. He vow never to touch it again; then he'd next day, and the next. go back to it all of a sudden, and there

Well 27 Mt. Jackson neither chick nor child belonging to and I am sure I'll bear it, ma'am.

Levi H. Culters.

Markers.—Samuel C. Campbell James J.

Markers.—Samuel Rinker.

Acony—Samuel Rinker.

Acony—Samuel Rinker.

Markers.—Samuel Eingree, Jacob bad men's words and ways, and he for

Two winters after Granny died, there the band, three standing outside, not acquitted.

me. He never had before. over the fall to his pride, and he was this letter reached her. ashamed to think I carried about the The tears came into my eyes as I re- the far West, to witness. The two Davis, -ti. A. Brown, Harrison White, Juo. H mark of his hand on my face. I would membered old Grauny's simple faith in animals came sayagely together, their Sharr.

Short Dell, D. F. Spiker, Jacob have thought little about that. though he never struck me before; but all the about that and only thankful she died before it was a locking of horos, several flerce am only thankful she died before it was a locking of horos. JOHNSON,—E. B. Shaver, Daniel Bowman, Shaw ne never struck me before; but all the lam only thankful she died before it was a locking of horos, several fierce ered a system for the capture of the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. Then the laster torning his paw over and over. ampted. Asing, Joseph Perry, A. J. Myers, H. H. Coff. Granny sighed sadiy, and looked up a her heart. I am thankful she has gone; for some minutes, the outsider being the mountains that reared their mighty there are worse things than death .- Ar- again vanquished and driver out. Levi H. Senner.

Capon Road.

C

> 'And I couldo't tell a good man a lie, people nor good. I think, for there's do that; it will relieve you and me of a 1881 drives falsehood away before it. I think port. Go right off and do it while you his wrists were strapped to the upper he minister shouldn't have asked me. are in the notion.' for it was makin' a wife turn witness I told him the truth, and he told James won his point. Stop! stop now! I had be had of a stout expert, who had and very erratic in its movements the land of any value behind. and James told the minister he'd no words, and then he took himself off nd I didu't hear of him for years.' Sastopped a moment. 'I often wonder how he could forget all the years I stood urned agin him; but I suppose the sting of one was sharper than the other vas sweet.' 'And you never heard from him

'Yes, ma'am, I heard once; he wrote o say he'd been sorry for it all, and he wasn't doing well. He was in Adelaide ; but he'd come back some day, and he said he was as fond of me ever; and I wrote back an' said I'd come to him, and I went. I worked nd worked to save the money, and I advertised, and got a lady to take me drove on. free for nursing her children on the way out. I'll never forget how I counted the days all the way out, and now I thought on all he'd say when he caught sight of me. I used to think I'd hear him say, 'Well, Sally, lass, I'm make it pleasant and attractive should not surprised : you was allays a determined 'un, and here you are, an' I am glad I' that's what he would have said, know, ma'am.

oping and praying, I got there, but he wasn't to be found. He'd gone away of diamonds, escorted by several cupidmonths before. I found out where he'd in chariots drawn by angels, shaded by worked; he'd been drinking ou and off, | honey suckles, and the whole spread they said. They didnt speak over-well with melted rainbows.

The Battle of the Elks.

A New York Herald correspondent accompanied General Crook and several ed for theft. She appeared at the bar other gentlemen on a hunting excursion with her baby of eleven months on her "No ma'am-never, never, I followed him from place to place, now on a trace of him, now losing him alto managed to scrape up enough money come home, then he'd know where to antelopes, grouse and sage hens with-

Flogging an Indian.

A London (Canada) paper has an acwhich the Indian took his severe punish-account says:

Doxtarter was brought out. He is a laugh on his face. His back was bared, parts of the arm of the triangle and his knees and ankles to the lower part, of nervousness manifested was a quick long was chased by the Whitelaw for where his camp was, in the cottonagainst her own man. He should have of the bridge. Presently Mr. Halstead throwing his back out. The only sign good, I know, though be did harm. S. I told him the truth and he told larm.

I told him the truth and he told larm. -that's my husband, is James, ma'am don't do that,' continued Mr. H. 'It been a drummer in the Twenty-thad and very erratic in its movements the don't do that,' continued Mr. H. 'It been a drummer in the Twenty-thad and very erratic in its movements the don't do that,' continued Mr. H. 'It been a drummer in the Twenty-thad and very erratic in its movements the bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be a suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought to bear on up so suddenly and were stationary to be brought t handle and nine thongs of hard, heavy cetting between man and wife; and who tried that were both got out alive." cord a yard long, with nine knots in each. At the command of the sheriff per's head with a quick jerk whistled through the air, and fell with a sharp ing large blue marks. At the third the fish was cut open, but the prisoner's muscles never quivered, though of sixty and turned away. Twenty five lash a secriffing defects and failings in others given with all the power of a strong notions and eclings; they are not acman in one place, caused the fiesh togreep up in purple wells. which were cut transversely into small squares, out of which the blood trickled. But lew of the crowd could look at it throughout. The Indian never flinched and after the last blow, which was given with extra vigor, the sheriff cried 'Enough,' and Doxister laughed and Bully for In jun.'

Feel him back very much.' The Inbaccer,' and grabbed a pipe out of the turnkey's mouth and went to smoke. prevent inflammation, and that made Josiah wince worse than the flogging. Upon introduction, enter at once

Dio conversation. A page digested is butter than a vol

A poor, pale scamstress was arraigncoins in her hand. She said to the

it stretched out its little hand and seiz d stone; a locality not much resorted to When it is known that in the moun- three pieces, which I did not observe by other trappers, on account of the frequently within 150 or 200 yards from my bonnet, and was going back to my were very jealous of the white hunters, That one he was prepared to deal with.

me, and then this trouble that's come; casionally almost in the midst of large to retract so absurd a tale, for it could the east side. never showed or said what he felt; he and yet, O ma'am! I'd give the world herds of these animals, with which the have no effect but to oblige the Court to sentence her to a much severer

It was discovered that each herd of punishment than they were disposed to to his beaver traps, of which he had These appeals had no effect, except woodstock go back to it all of a sudden, and there to maintain the mastery over all to to maintain the mastery over all to maintain the mastery over all to maintain the mastery over all to other bucks. The proportion of large to strengthen the poor mother's pertinal missing from under the bank where he close adherence to her original story.

There were hear tracks in the mud her lands with pais, and yet her voice to every twenty-five animals, but there As this firmness was sustained by that was gentle and sweet. 'I often think.' are frequently four or five bucks seen look of innocence which the most adroit 'Well, ma'am, at last he signed the she said, suddenly, 'the reason we love in a herd of this number, the question criminal can never counterfeit, the ing back into the cedar bushes, topledge It's years ago now, when Jesus Christis not only because we of superiority not having been settled. Court was at some loss to discover what she and now be's in his grave these Heaven, but as one of us, and bearing accompanied by terrific fights between their embarrassment one of the judges many years, he and his wife, and I've pain as we have to hear it. He bore it, the bucks for the mastery, in which not proposed to renew the scene described unfrequently large pieces were broke by the mother. Three gold coins were bluff, he found that the animal had would not shoot the squaw. At length of their magnifient antiers, and in one placed on the clerk's table. The turned aside, and gone further up the these words. The next day when I instance we found a buck whom con-mother was requested to assume the tinued fights had left with but one soil- position in which she stood at her em- thought he heard it thrashing about in and seeing the trapper close upon her covered a quiet form that would never but this veteran was still game. One breathless pause in Court. The baby So he carefully mounted the side of and started to run away. But she had member of our party succeeded by per- soon discovered the bright zons, eyed the bloff, twenty or thirty feet, hoping not got many yards before Markhead months there wasn't a happier couple I took Libby away and found a place stent labor and caution on one occa-them for a moment, smiled, and then to catch sight of the animal over the seized her by her long hair; at which for ten miles round. Then one day- for her. She is a woman now, and sion in approaching within two hundred stretened forth its tiny hand and clutch- tops of the bushes. From this point the poor woman, thinking, no doubt, it was biring day; I remember it as matried, with little children round her yards of a based of not less than one ed them in its flugers with a miser's he saw a large grizzly, sitting on a chat her last hour had come, croushed hundred. There were four bucks in cargerness: The mother was at once broad flat rock, not more than forty or on the ground, and begged pitcously, ships have been from time immemorial a source of excitement to the juvenile literary mind, from the fact that the The slept it off; but he couldn't get who would be gone home long before and a sight was witnessed which it is years, been attended with dangers and The bear was much annoved by the she would never try to get away; she hardships which were onl; braved by the hardiest and most courageous of the followers of the sea; but the inventive see him examining it attentively, holdwhale which is attended with as little danger as an ordinary yachting cruise several tips having been broken off his or fishing excursion. A small steamer for the purpose of killing whales in the novel and painful appendage could that the five savages had gone on his horns. The defeat d buck was com- known as the Daisy Whitelaw, built waters configuous to our barbor, has be that had got such last hold of his trail up the creek, just as he had surfor some time been successfully engaged in the capture of these mammoth. Anon the puzzied animal would tre inhabitants of the sea, and in several voyages has never failed to kill from it up from the stone again, with a low one to three of these gigantic animals. whimper and would then commence always affective harpoon, a weapon its anger and coax it into letting go its hours start of them, resolved to take it which is fired from a mortar and ex- This partomime so interested the some cold venison which they had in known as the bomb-rocket is used. grip. plodes within the body of the whale, trapper that he could scarcely take the foot of Second street was kitled by point of shooting the bear, when he was had taken had given him a good appement was something wonderful. The the gun of this steamer. The whales startled from it by the neigh of a horse, tite. abound in large numbers at this season Glancing out over the tops of the Assisted by the squaw, he next of the year between the Heads and the genous to these waters are the tinback, bunchback, California gray and sulphur on their poples. They had relocal up, bottom. The latter is the largest of and stood among some little sand-hilthe whale species, and one 150 feet locks, looking across, directly toward him. Under ordinary circumstances an the creek. old whaler can determine the course of Markhead saw that, even could be n whale when it disappears under water, affairs of others alone. What if you do a pike-staff. countable for them to you, you have middler in other men's business only mars, and it does sometimes happen that in thrusting his nose into other of offsirs. people's business he gets it seriously 'No, marm,' said the shoe dealer: 'I but to sell you anything below eights would render me liable under the statute for prevention to cruelty to ani-'Tom, where can I get a good two not rule? 'I can give you one on the applies to both feet. Elderly gentleman to a freshman on

Whale Killing with Bombs.

Then.' after looking him over, 'prob proceeding along the bank, looking to and meat, until be tackles a railway ably you ain't going very lar.'

Markhead's Exploit. At Bismarck (Dakota) the mountain exploit with the Blackfeet. It is the same Markhead who, five or dered by the Mexicans, near Taos, At could hardly have been more than foot adventure.

carried to the Commissioner of Police, markable boy, so muscular and of such

As was his custom, he had his horse

That morning-it was in the month of October-he had set off early to look had proceeded but a short distance, when he found one of his steel trap-

There were bear tracks in the mud about the bank: very large ones, leadward the bluff.

The trail was fresh, and Markhead bottom. But just at that moment te fitty yards distant.

Watching the creature a moment, he found that it limped painfully, and that | Markhead led her back to the ponies, it walked a short distance on three legs. and drawing his knife, intimated to her The dangerous adventures of whaling Finally, it turned about and limped by most emphatic dumb show that her back to the stone sgale; and Markhead top-not would assuredly come off it she now perceived that the grazzly had his made the least attempt to escape. beaver trap hard and fast on one of his With that, the squaw protested, with forepaws.

ing it close up to his nose and gravely ble from him.

to step on its loot; but instantly took that they had left only this squaw to licking the trap, as if wishing to appeare bushes, he saw, some four or five hun-

the cat was flourished around the whipwill come up to 'blow,' but when the ture his horse and provisions, together probably-toward the end of the next whale is looking for feed its course un- with all the peltries he had trapped. - day. The feelings of the outwitted der the water cannot be calculated with- That was bad. But what was worse, there Blackfeet on their return to the place own trail through the grass along the Markbead, may perhaps better be left Mind your own business and let the bank of the creek must, he knew he as to the fancy of the reader.

would follow him like bloodhounds to and other property. his death. It is not strange that our The squaw was some time afterward not been set a judge over them. The hunter thought no more of the bear, reclaimed at the fort by a Blackfort and that his merriment was cut short chief, whose wife she had been when by this by no means laughable aspect captured. On Markhead being pointed fellow, not easily alarmed, and while Indian." ne lay there watching the Blackfeet as they stealthily approached the place There is no accounting for taste. A would like to give you a smaller pair, where his herse was picketed, he hit on a ruse for outwitting them at their own against the bridegroom was sent in tactics. Feeling sure that in a few minutes wedding.

they would be on his track, he slid down from his perch on the bluff and Here he resumed his way up the marrying her.

creek, taking care to leave a plainlymarked trail through the wet grass, a train-You don't have any ticket? with here and there a footpeint in the commercial traveler, how plentiful No. I travel on my good looks.' and or sand, just as if he was leisurely mustard is, and how scarce are bread

NO. 15.

But he ran on fast, and never slackened his pace till he had covered a distince of at least ten miles from the men often tell the story of Markhead' place where he had seen the Blackfeet cross the creek. His surmise was that the savages, en discovering his trait, would pursue him, but would expect to come upon him at every trap, and hence would follow on stealthily, and it no great speed.

SHENANDOAH HERALD

Advertising Bates:

Advertisements will be inserted at One Polls T quare of ten lines, or less, for the first tase un, and 50 cents for each subsequent insertion. Unless the number of insertions be marked up manuscript, it will be published until forbid eats per line, each insertion

preried at lower rates.

Having thus planned out a ten-mile hase for them. Markhead ran back across the narrow meadow, and climbing the bluffs, made a detour for his camp again. keeping a mile or over from the creek, back among the saudille and chiffs.

Being a fleet and praticed runner, he was not more than an hour and a half making the trip back to the vicinity of his camp, among the cotton woods, the tall tops of which he could see at a After taking breath a few minutes, erept out among the boulders on the rng overlooking the camping-place; for he expected the Indians would feave From the crag, he soon saw the six ponies down among the timber. They were hitched up near his own horse. number with the herses. The packs; and after looking a few moments, he espied an Indian sitting in the shade of a bush, on a heap of buffalo skins and Watching the Indian a little, Marklend crept down, noiseless as a fox, to a large cottonwood, rather nearer the horses, and then, steadying his piece against the tree-trunk, was just about to shoot the unwary sentinel, when the Indian turned partially, and to his great surprise he saw that it was not a Blackfoot warrior, but a plump and very comely squaw.

Markhead often admitted that, for followed it cautiously through the cedar. the mestant, he was quite nonplussed. Coming at length to the bot of the He did not know what to do, for he

The squaw bounded from her seat. to spare her.

every gesture she could devise, that its eyes, in a most coulcal manner, as covered from her fright and in answer if at an entire loss to make out what to signs, gave her capter to understand mised they would, and had been so confident that they would find him.

Markhead thought over the distince. and concluding he had a full twoaim with his rifle. But not wishing to companions lunched very convivially packed up all the Indians' peltries, and head of which he placed the senaw. Then collecting his own property, he mounted his horse and set off, driving the whole train in front of him-master of the situation-leaving, in fact, noth-Once out on the plains, clear of the erngs and timber. Markhead drove his ingular cavalcade on at a great pace, and traveling all the rest of the day himself escape them the Indians would and all that night with but brief halts, reached a trading-post-Laramie fort, was a heavy dew that morning, and his where they had left their ponies, after The young trapper realized about ax

He knew that the Indians would not hundred dollars from the sale of the fail to discover his trail, and that they captured ponies, peltries, buffalo robes, out to him at the post, he said: "He But Markhead was a quick-witted big warrior. He play beaver on > summons in a breach-of-promise suit among the bridal presents at an Iowa

An Ohio girl sued a man for breach ran back to the creek, to the point of promise, and proved him such a where he had left it in pursuit of the secondrel that the jury decided that she ought to pay him something for not

A mon hever realises, remarks

IRECTORY. before the breath of time made her tace dim to my memory. She was always called Old Granny, but her name was Sarah Thornton, and she lived in ne room with her little granddaughter of Thorp's Yard, at Firnmere, in Cum-We were staying, a party of to come home. I thought it better to rooms for a month-and we had thred find me ; but he's never been. I've a little of always going about together waited and waited. I am waiting now: over the Lake distric ; so by the time but he'll be too late soon," we got to Fernmere we went our sep arate ways. We were people who ny I said, gently. liked best to be unshackled by the

of course, he was dead.

and I've only heard of him once since. and that was long ago.'

seventy years of age."

aure '

LEE -6 M. Tidler, J. H. Rice, Mark Thomas

CPROUTE COURT.—P. W. Magruder, E. E. Stick-ey, I. Hille land, E. D. Newman. COURT.—P. W. Magruder E. E. Stick-ey, L. Triplett, Jr .W. Magruder - - Woodstock Va SCHMITT. - - Proprietor

by him for the sake of the one time !

PERFUMERY, SOAPS, BRUSHES, gain ?

interesting reading: Perhaps he is waiting for you Gran-No, ma'am, he's not dead. I'd have the game, a fact amply proved, the poor to engage a lawyer, and when apparent fatigue. Indians he held known somehow. I don't know, but party should only kill such quantities as asked by the Judge what she had to say held in trifling regard, and delighted in in the world but little Libby?' I asked his firmness that's kept him away. He's friends, and not leave it to lie or rot on went to my employer's I carried my the scars of not less than a dozen of her one day. Has your husband been not doin' well and doesn't like to come the plains, as is frequently the case child with me. It was in my arms, as their builtes and arrows. ne'd give his life for me yet. ma'am." this determination not a single cow or it. There were several gold coins on on a trapping excursion for beaver, up and looking to his rifle, Markhead

'I know he's thought of me whereever he's been, and I like that of him- tains or on the plains the hunter was until I got home. I at once put on deadly hostility of the Blackfeet, who ne'd never a thought for any one else.' She never saw the selfishness of love herds of elk, numbering from fifty to employer to return them, when I was and killed every hunter they could sur-'Yes, good enough at times, ma'am. that could go on through the year mak- 500, the wisdom of General Crook's arrested. This is the solem truth, as I prise. and he was allays fond of me. I don't ling no sign, expressing no desire to suggestion is seen. The habits of the hope for Heaven's mercy.' think he ever looked at any one else. know even whether she lived or died. elk have thus far been little known. The Court could not believe this with him, for carrying traps and pro-'I often think of the sorrow he's but it was the fortune of members of story. They upbraided the mother for visions, and at this time had made his he ever has, though I'm more than been saved being away-the boy's our party, both on the initial day of the her impudence in endeavoring to palm camp in a clump of cottonwoods, on the death soon after he'd married, and then hunt and later, to remain concealed for off such a manifest lie for the trath. - bank of the creek, near the foot of a his poor wife, and little Libby only left hours in the neighborhood of and oc- They besought her, for her own sake. range of bluffs which fronted stream on

I never had another conversation

'If it wasn't for the lass, and the va tage of my visit to set out to the entered the bare room, all was still, and a white sheet was over the bed. It tary stump as an apology for a horn, ployer's house. There was then a the cedar a little way shead.

Christian thirley, D. F. Zirkle, John M. got bimself. When he came home at came a letter from her husband. He yet willing to acknowledge defeat and night he was drunk, ma'am-that drunk was dying, and had got a friend to leave the band, and yet whom the he couldn't stand; and he seemed to write and say good by. He'd not been forth had evidently driven out. The be a-lamed even then, before he was good to her, he said, and he'd not led a sober yet, and he gave way to had good life these many years; he'd not language, and repronched me with even been true to her, as he ought to he as at the outsiders as if to invite things that never had been, and he hit have been, and it troubled him sadis them to return and renew the combat.

instead of brooking over them alone. great independence and some eccen- man decided at once that the broken Well, ma'am, and I went about as us tricities, but it is not generally known antiers of the defeated buck would form ual, and when folks asked about my that he is the humorist par excellence of an interesting trophy and drawing a face I put them off with anything. But the West. Recently a fellow applied to tend on the animal he shot him dead, things got no better. At last one day Mr. Hatstead for either work or a tem the minister came down. My master porary loan of money. His application was out, and he walked stright in and being decimed, he undertook to enforce t was true, and then, quite by chance, would walk out to the centre of the long run Markbead inback whale recently on exhibition at lose his good steel trap, he was on the long run Markbead inback whale recently on exhibition at lose his good steel trap, he was on the he asked if he'd given me a blow on my Covington bridge, jump off, and drown nimself.

'Well, now, that's good thought,' something in a good man's face that great responsibility for your future sup-

The fellow struck out in the direction won't be safe; try some other plan. ousiness to come spying about and Come to think of it, the last two fellows when he came in to me he said bitter __Editor's Drawer, in Harper's Magazine for February.

A pretty good joke is told at the expense of two limbs of the law who are well known in Senaca county. They were our carriage riding a few days ago and on the road overhauled a farmer who was driving a four horse team, three horses of which were a little the worse looking by reason of hard work. Thinking to have some fun with the honest iller of the soil, they joxingly inquired of him why one of his horses was so fat and the other three so peor. The granger, who was acquainted with the egal lights, quickly replied that the fat norse was a lawyer and the others his clients. The disciples of Blackstone

There is no place in the wide world like home. It is the dwelling place of our heart's treasure, and the first duty of our lives we ove to its inmates. To to the aim of every man.

A hidy says the first time she was kissed, she felt like a tub of roses swimming in honey, cologue, naumegs and "Well, ma'am, after that waiting, and crauberries. She telt as if something was running through her nerves on feet much of which was brought through to soon after she left her employer, and a wo kin' at first one and then another, I Omaha and points beyond: Four servant was sent to her room to claim bears, eighteen buck elk, with magnifi it. The servant found her about to in Wyoming Territory. The results of arm. She went to get some work one the hunt as a whole are best summed day and stole three golden coins of ten six years later, was treacherously murup by the following 'may of game,' france each. The money was missed cent antiers; sixteen mule deer, ten quit the room with the three golden twenty-two when he had this Blackout number. This passage from the servant, I am going to carry them The old pioneers of the upper Miscorrespondent's letter will be found back to you.' Nevertheless she was couri speak of Markhead as a most re-At General Crook's suggestion it was and he ordered her to be sent to the powers of endurance, that he would decided that owing to the abundance of Police Court for trial. She was too run fifteen or twenty miles without could be eaten or transported to their for herself, she replied: The day I a skirosish with them; though be bore when game is abundant. As a result it is now. I wasn't paying attention to At the time alluded to he had gone reat distance. And she looked up with the bright smile | calf was numbered among the elk killed | the mantelpiece, and, unknown to me. one of the head creeks of the Yellowby the party.

mountains were thronged. which proved to be those animals able so deep in poverty. to maintain the mastery over all the or wandered proudly around A the band, shaking his towering

When he was released, the reporter sked him how he felt. He answered: dian asked the whipper for a 'chew but it was taken from him. The wounds spot, John.' 'Well let's have it.' were washed with sait and water to Don't wear tight shoes! That rule bear.

me hurriedly read,

2 100 228